

CPT Coding & 2008 Updates for Physicians & Staff

Current Procedural Terminology, CPT, is the coding basis for most medical and surgical services and procedures. Participants will learn how CPT is organized, how to properly determine a code from a brief description of the service and how to use the main sections of the book. Participants will learn key definitions of common services and situations. This program is designed for surgeons, office managers, front desk staff, clinical staff, new employees in any position. There will be a special section on new CPT codes for surgical specialties that have been introduced for 2009.

This Practice Management Webconference is just $99 for Members & their Practices:

- | = A 90-minute live Webconference including a formal presentation and time for Q&A
- | = The course is given once as a live Webconference, on Wednesday November 19, 2008 (convenient for your staff) and then via streaming Internet technologies shortly thereafter. Your $99 registration fee covers either one or both presentations and handout materials.
